Distant view of the dance arbor under construction. The arbor is tucked down next to the trees, west side of the road that traverses the park north to south. The Kaw Nation plan to hold 3-4 dances a year under the arbor.

The view from west to east of the dance arbor (under construction). Immediately to the left of the structure is a view of the distant unknown Indian monument. When seated inside the arbor, the monument will be in full view to the east, visually connecting the past to the present.
